

1. Rehabilitation through physical therapy
2. Individualized care
3. Educate village women to response to cure and treatment
4. Motivate women to participate in helping their kids
5. Counseling & Training to parents is essential
6. Modifying instructions to meet individual needs which enables children with mental retardation to develop to their fullest potential.
7. Provide Cerebral Palsy children a variety of therapy equipment and toys to help children play and have fun.
8. Treasury of fun activities towards better behavior
9. Provide amplification system and hearing aid to deaf children

What is Cerebral Palsy:

- Cerebral Palsy describe a group of chronic disorders impairing control of movement.
- Symptoms of Cerebral Palsy may have difficulty with fine motor tasks.
- Cerebral Palsy does not get worse overtime, and most children with Cerebral Palsy have a normal life span.
- Usually the greater the injury to the brain the more severe the Cerebral Palsy.
- With early and on going treatment the effects of Cerebral Palsy can be reduced.
- How does it happen:
- Many of the children were born following complicated deliveries.
- Lack of Oxygen during birth
- What is mental retardation:
- Mental retardation means a sub average general intellectual functioning.
- Mental retardation is not a disease, or mental illness.
- The learning process is very slow and very difficult.
- Person with mental retardation has the capacity to learn, to develop, and to grow.
- How does it happen:
- Chromosome abnormalities
- Lack of Oxygen at time of birth
- Blood in compatibility's between mother and fetus

- Maternal infections such as Rubella or Herpes
- What is Hearing Impairment:
- Hearing Impairment is often used to describe a wide range of hearing losses including deafness.
- Hearing loss and deafness affect individuals of all the ages.
- Hearing loss or deafness does not affect a person's intellectual capacity or ability to learn.
- Permanent hearing loss which adversely affect children's educational performance.
- Deafness occur due to mumps. Deafness is compound problems of unhappiness and psychological imbalance.
- How does it happen:
- Deafness occur due to Mumps.